The USPS, in a mammoth act of magnanimity, has announced a general amnesty for tub swipers, effective immediately. "Far, far too many of the tubs, which cost the company $25.65 each, have found their way into the hands of unauthorized individuals," said USPS spokesman Bob Nomo. "Too many of these puppies are loose and we'd like 'em back. You don't have to worry about the rubber bands, though," Nomo said. Just return your hot tub to any uniformed agent of the USPS. Deadline for the amnesty is December 31, 2006.
